ProstaLund Operations AB in bankruptcy at own request

The company has been under financial constraints for a period of time and the Board of the parent company (ProstaLund AB) has asked for voluntary winding up of ProstaLund Operations AB. Appointed liquidator has requested the company in bankruptcy. The bankruptcy decision was registered with the Uppsala District Court on 25 January 2012. Lawyer Ola Nordström from Wijk & Nordström in Uppsala is the designated trustee in bankruptcy.

The trustee has decided to run the business with the immediate intention of finding a purchaser of the business.
